"A community festival celebrating kids with special needs"

Saturday, June 7
Lake Eola | Downtown Orlando
7:30am-1:00pm

Buddy Stroll 7:30-10:00am

Kids with special needs (VIP kids) and their families will be "buddied up" with other kids, families, and individuals (Buddies) for a friendship stroll around Lake Eola. Together you will enjoy fun activities and have the opportunity to visit over 100 exhibitors who service the VIP community and/or are great community resources.

Activities of the day will include:

- Family entertainment
- Great music
- Food and goodies
- Theme park characters
- Petting Zoo
- Clowns and face painting
- Crafts and activities
- 20 foot mural to paint

Come as our VIP and be our Honored Guest ...
Or Come as a Buddy and be a Friend!

VIP kids are any kids with special needs which includes any physical, cognitive, medical or hidden disability, chronic or life-threatening illness, or those who are medically fragile.

Honorary Co-Chairs:

Orange County Mayor Richard T. Crotty & Pam Crotty, Orlando Mayor Buddy Dyer & Karen Dyer
