"A community festival
celebrating kids with special needs"

Saturday, June 7
Lake Eola | Downtown Orlando
7:30am–1:00pm

Buddy Stroll 7:30–10:00am

Kids with special needs (VIP kids) and their families will be "buddied up" with other kids, families, and individuals (Buddies) for a friendship stroll around Lake Eola. Together you will enjoy fun activities and have the opportunity to visit over 100 exhibitors who service the VIP community and/or are great community resources.

Activities of the day will include:

Family entertainment ▪ Great music ▪ Food and goodies ▪ Theme park characters ▪ Petting Zoo
Clowns and face painting ▪ Crafts and activities ▪ 20 foot mural to paint

Come as our VIP and be our Honored Guest ...
Or Come as a Buddy and be a Friend!

VIP kids are any kids with special needs which includes any physical, cognitive, medical or hidden disability, chronic or life-threatening illness, or those who are medically fragile.

Honorary Co-Chairs:

Orange County Mayor Richard T. Crotty & Pam Crotty,
Orlando Mayor Buddy Dyer & Karen Dyer
